SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO : ss. : WESTERN DIVISION : Of the October Term In the year nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Three.

PUBLICITY

The Grand Jurors for the United States of America, impaneled and sworn in the District Court of the United States for the Western Division of the Southern Judicial District of Ohio, at the October Term thereof, in the year Nineteen hundred and twenty-three, and inquiring for that division and district, upon their oaths and affirmations have heard the testimony:

Don Osborn alias H. J. Putman alias Don Putman:

I, Don Osborn, am a film producer at Hollywood Calif., employed at the Sanford Pictures Corp. and also an independent producer and director of motion pictures. I became acquainted with Patricia Palmer in 1921 during the making of a Shakespearian picture for the Pathe Company of Paris, France after which we set out to produce a Western picture of very modern and daring flavor for Associated Pictures. We were not able to produce this picture as we could not secure the necessary loans since banks were discouraging independent production on the grounds of theatres being held by trusts. After this, we ended our partnership.
